

Aspirations Newsletter

July 2010

Congratulations!!

- Natalie Anderson graduated Oakstone Academy H.S. May 28
- Jason Brand who graduated Capital University majoring in Music/voice
- Bryan Gaunt graduated from Dublin Scioto High School, June 5th & will continue education at Tolles Technical School in computer science
-  Kerry Perdy graduated Oakstone and is interning as a hiking specialist this Summer at camp in North Carolina on the Appalachian Trail all Summer and hopes to apply for the military!!!!
- Joel Stands graduated from Columbus State this month in Sports and Exercise Studies. Joel was voted by the school's faculty as 2009-2010 Sports and Exercise Student of the Year for his hard work, dedication and passion for education.

RECAP

Much Ado About Nothing

by William Shakespeare

Shakespeare's sparkling comedy in which the apparent destruction of one marriage helps to bring about another.

THURSDAY JULY 8

Schiller Park 1069 Jaeger Street Columbus (In German Village)

- 6:30 BRING YOUR OWN DINNER
- 8:00 pm SHOW STARTS: Bring blankets to sit closer or lawn chairs if you want to sit further away from stage

RSVP: Jodi Kramer

Jeff: Siegel.45@osu.edu